

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION TERMS:

1. Attendance to conference is confirmed after paying the selected lecture/course fees.
Completing and sending the registration form without payment will not guarantee booking registrants' attendance.
2. In case JISH training center canceled one of the courses, a full refund will be returned to registered attendees who have already paid the fees.
3. In case JISH training center rescheduled one of the c courses to a later date, the course participants will be provided with an option to either refund the total amount of the course or to keep the amount with the training center to secure a seat the rescheduled time.
4. The course participant has the right to cancel his/her registration two weeks before the start date, and fees will be returned to registrant in full, after deducting any bank fees due to the refund.
5. The course participant has the right to change his/her registration to any other course two weeks before the holding date.
6. The course participant will be compensated 50% of the course fee if he/she cancels registration for the course a week or less before the course takes place.
7. The course participant must attend the whole duration of the training course.
8. If the course participant is absent from attendance, he/she loses the right to claim the course fees, compensation for them, or obtain a certificate of attendance for the course.
9. It is not permitted to send/replace another person on behalf of the participant registered in the course to attend.
10. By completing this form, you confirm that all information provided by you is accurate, and that JISH is not responsible for any error or missing information.

